Works better than duct tape

Smart drivers win respect early. Try these three simple steps.

1. Set Your Rules
   From seat belts to no drinking—let everyone know your rules upfront. You’re the one who says what’s not cool.

2. Ask for Help
   Want to share the driving experience? Ask for the help you need—from directions to lowering the volume on the radio.

3. Expect Respect
   You set the tone. Someone acts annoying, let them know.

Ride like a friend. Drive like you care.
